INVESTING IN AIRPORTS CONFERENCE SET FOR 2-4 DECEMBER IN DELHI, INDIA

MONTREAL, 6 NOVEMBER 2015 – Just one month remains for global airport professionals to register for the Investing in Airports, Economic Oversight and Regulation Conference, in Delhi, India, organized by Airports Council International (ACI), in cooperation with the International Civil Aviation Organization (ICAO).

The conference will provide an unprecedented opportunity to discuss economic oversight and regulation with a variety of aviation stakeholders, including ICAO, state regulators, airport operators, airlines and investors. It marks the first time a full conference will be dedicated to learning about how changes to airport governance models and airport management practices are encouraging regulators worldwide to take new approaches to airport oversight and regulation.

Participants will also have an opportunity to engage in a pre-conference workshop where regulatory frameworks and airport governance and investment structures will be addressed.
