Challenges faced by African Airports

- The global effort that is required today is the global awareness of regions, states, industry, organizations, and all authorities.
- Promote an effective and sustainable security culture and of course one as an essential fundamental value approved by the general management
- How are we going to be able to spread this security culture through all the stakeholders of the civil aviation
- Integrate the awareness of security in the normal operations of the airport so there must be a balance between the security, safety, facilitation and the passenger experience.

Security issues and challenges 2021

- An adapted primary legislation, domesticated national regulations (NCASP, etc..)
- Clearly established requirements (programs, guidelines, SOPs, Security Plans and Contingency Plans, etc.)
- Compliant installations & checkpoints
- Sufficient and appropriate security equipment
- Adequate human resources (Retainability of human resource established certification process)
- Quality control and assurance process
- Internal threat

Does the existing system cover all fields of prevention?

Does the existing system meet the needs of users?

Security issues and challenges 2021

Does the equipment acquisition process take this into account?

Does the updated regulations meet international and national requirements?

ACI AFRICA PERSPECTIVES

"Open Day" or "Security Week"

Creative solutions and technology will offer the opportunity to achieve the objectives, which are generally among the best solutions to broaden the security culture.

ACI Guidelines

Prepare an ACI guidelines regarding the security culture at airports.

Security Culture Workshops

Explain the ICAO approach or the ICAO toolkit on security culture and give real practical examples on good practices and good manners to promote security culture.

Information Exchange Platform

To carry out good practices among the different African airports. An information exchange platform on the ACI Africa website as a solution.
