SECURITY CULTURE

Security Interview: Getting the culture right every day

1. How would you describe the security culture in your organization?

2. When compared to other business objectives, do you think security is a priority?

3. What do you understand to be your role in security?

4. How can senior managers demonstrate good security practice?

5. If you observe suspicious behaviour or something which causes concern, how would you report it in your organization?

6. If you observe suspicious behaviour or something which causes concern, what would make it easier for you to report it?