6.2 To the meeting venue

Transport will be provided to the meeting venue. A bus will depart at 7:15am daily from Six-Eighty Hotel to the ESAF Regional Office in Gigiri, and will transport delegates back to the pickup point after closure of the meeting each day.

7. Visa

- 7.1 While all travellers arriving in Kenya should have a valid passport, Kenya entry visas are not required for nationals from some countries. Participants are therefore advised to ascertain whether or not they are exempt from the Kenyan entry visa requirement at the respective embassies.
- 7.2 Those who are not exempt should apply for visas well in advance from Kenya High Commissions or Embassies, which will issue them upon presentation of documentation showing that the applicants are designated representatives to a particular UN meeting to be held in Nairobi. In countries where there is no Kenyan Embassy or High Commission, the British Embassy or High Commission will generally represent Kenya, and be in a position to issue visas.

8. Health

- 8.1 Participants must ensure that they take out travel insurance (including health) from their home country for the duration of their stay in Nairobi. Participants should particularly ensure that their insurance is applicable in Nairobi. Furthermore, participants must carry evidence of current health/hospitalization insurance such as cards that may be produced to health institutions should the need arise. Participants are also strongly encouraged to provide information during registration on their next of kin who may be contacted on behalf of the participant should the need arise.
- 8.2 Presentation of a yellow fever certificate at the point of entry is highly required for the following African countries – Angola, Benin, Burkina Faso, Burundi, Comoros, Central African Republic, Chad, Congo, DRC, Ivory Coast, Ethiopia, Gabon, Gambia, Ghana, Guinea Bissau, Guinea Equatorial, Liberia, Mali, Mauritania, Mozambique, Niger, Nigeria, Somalia, Congo, Rwanda,

São Tomé and Príncipe, Senegal, Sierra Leone, Tanzania, Togo and Uganda. If the certificate cannot be made available, vaccination will take place at the point of entry against payment of US$15. You may wish to visit the World Health Organization (WHO) website <http://www.who.int/ith/> for information on Kenya.

9. Weather

- 9.1 Nairobi is about 5000 feet above mean sea level and temperatures during the month of June are minimum 11.8°C and maximum 21.8°C.

10. Local Currency and Foreign Exchange Rates

- 10.1 The basic unit of currency is the Kenyan shilling (Ksh), which is divided into 100 cents. There are silver and bronze coins of 1 shilling, 5 shillings, 10 shillings, 20 shillings and 40 shillings. Notes are issued in denominations of 50, 100, 200, 500 and 1000 shillings.
- 10.2 Kenya shilling exchange rates are determined by the interbank trade which varies daily. Recently the rate has been fluctuating between Kshs.80.00 to Kshs.85.00 to the US Dollar, but may be out of this range depending on market influences.
- 10.3 There is no limit to the amount of foreign bank notes or traveller's cheques which visitors may bring into Kenya. However, the export of Kenya currency by visitors is strictly forbidden. A maximum of 400 shillings may be taken out.
- 10.4 Commercial banks and forex bureaux provide exchange facilities. Most banks are open between 9.00 am to 4.00 pm from Monday to Friday and between 9.00 am to 12.00 am on the first and last Saturday of the month. Hotels also offer exchange facilities but at a small extra fee. For those who may need Kenyan currency immediately on arrival, the banks at Jomo Kenyatta international airport are open daily from 7.00 am to midnight and will change foreign currency into Kenya shillings.

11. Telephones

- 11.1 Worldwide direct connections are available, using the international code or telephone operator if necessary. From abroad dial 254 followed by required number. There are 4 mobile operators: Airtel, Orange, Safaricom and YU.

12. Security

- 12.1 Please visit the site <http://www.unon.org> and click on "Security Advice" for the latest information. As in many large cities, crime is prevalent within Nairobi. It is advisable to check with the hotel reception regarding security within the surrounding areas. It is also advisable to use taxis or transport arranged by the hotel reception to visit shopping complexes, go sightseeing or need to travel for any other purpose.
