Weather and Local Time Information

Winter in South Africa (May to August) is characterized in the higher-lying areas of the interior plateau by dry, sunny, crisp days and cold nights. So it's a good idea to bring warm clothes.

The month of August is moderate in Johannesburg with lowest temperature being below $10^\circ\text{C}$, averaging $4^\circ\text{C}$, and highest temperature being on average $17^\circ\text{C}$. During August cold fronts are experienced on occasion when the temperatures drop suddenly.

South Africa local time is GMT+2. It is fixed across the country.

Local Currency and Foreign Exchanges Rates

The official currency is South African Rand (ZAR).

The current exchange parity rate as at 11 June 2015 is:

- 1 GBP = 19.19 ZAR
- 1 USD = 12.43 ZAR
- 1 EUR = 13.99 ZAR

Exchange is easily available in the banks and exchange agencies. Credit cards are accepted in most establishments. Most shops and hotels accept Visa Cards.
Language

The country has 11 official languages. English is the preferred language for corporate business, including training and for tourists.

Hours of Business

The official working hours in South Africa are 8.00 am to 4.00 pm, Mondays to Fridays and 8.00 am to 12.30 pm on Saturday. Saturday afternoons and Sundays are treated as non-corporate time.

Electrical Supply

The electrical out is 220/240 V, 50 Hz. The standard 3-pin British plugs are the most common outlets in most hotels.
