

Some of the Achievements:

- 1946 - PICA0 North Atlantic Route Service Conference (Dublin, March 1946)
- 1946 - PICA0 International Conference on Air Routes in Europe and the Mediterranean (Paris, 24 April – 15 May 1946)
- 1947 to 1952 – European-Mediterranean Manual (Doc 4700), a first European Aeronautical Information Publication (AIP)
- 1952 – airway concept won against the “free flight areas”; first basic European airways network was developed
- 1952 – first frequency assignment meeting to resolve the VHF frequency congestion (19 VHF channels assigned throughout the EUR Region)
- 1965 – Limited NAT Regional Air Navigation (RAN) Meeting: RVSM and the use of satellites envisaged
- 1965 – creation of NAT SPG

-
- 1972 – creation of EANPG
 - 1977 – Minimum Navigation Performance Specifications (MNPS), the source of the Performance Based navigation (PBN) concept (NAT)
 - 1977 – Mach Number technique – reduced separation minima (NAT)
 - 1992 – Strategy for Area Navigation (RNAV) implementation in EUR Region
 - 1995 – RVSM in the NAT
 - 1999 to 2007 – Bosnia and Herzegovina Technical Cooperation/Assistance Programme
 - 2000 – first cross-polar, trans-polar routes, trans-Siberian ATS routes
 - 2001 – RNAV 5 in EUR
 - 2002 – RVSM in the EUR
 - 2002 – 2004 “Olimp” meetings instrumental to redesign the airspace over the Aegean Sea and support the Olympic games in Athens (2004)

-
- 2005 – 2012 Safety awareness programme starts (workshops, seminars, training courses); more than 1500 people trained (SMS and SSP)
 - 2005 – First Volcanic Ash Contingency Plan (EUR and NAT)
 - 2007 – Bosnia and Herzegovina (BiH) airspace transferred from EUFOR to BiH
 - 2008 – PBN in EUR and NAT
 - 2010 – 2016 Technical Cooperation/Assistance programmes (safety) (Kazakhstan)
 - 2011 – RVSM in EURASIA
 - 2011 – EUR Regional Performance Framework (EUR Doc 030)
 - 2011 – Creation of RASG-EUR
 - 2012 – Data Link Mandate (NAT)
 - 2012 – Creation of ENAVSECG
 - 2015 – Baltic Sea Project Team; Civil-Military cooperation in ATM guidance material (Doc 032)
 - 2016 – No Country Left Behind: enhanced support to States through technical assistance programmes