

Assembly Resolutions no Longer in Force
(as of 8 October 2010)

A16-1: Assembly resolutions no longer in force

Whereas since the establishment of the International Civil Aviation Organization on 4 April 1947, the Assembly has passed several hundred resolutions but many of them or parts of them are no longer in force because, among other reasons, they, or parts of them, have expired or were cancelled or superseded, expressly or by implication, by subsequent action of the Assembly;

Whereas, as recognized in Assembly Resolution A15-2, it is not always clear whether some of those resolutions are currently valid;

Whereas it is desirable to specify which of the resolutions or parts of resolutions adopted by the Assembly in the past are no longer in force at this time; and

Whereas it is desirable to indicate clearly that the resolutions of the Interim Assembly of the Provisional International Civil Aviation Organization (PICAO) are no longer in force;

The Assembly declares:

1. that, subject to the provisions of clause 2 following, the resolutions or parts of resolutions specified in the attached list, which includes all resolutions previously cancelled, are no longer in force; and
2. that the present action shall not affect any right, privilege, obligation or liability acquired, accrued or incurred or any arrangement made under any of the resolutions specified in the attached list and, in particular, shall not cancel or in any way diminish the indebtedness of any Contracting State to the Organization which arose by virtue of any of those resolutions.

Furthermore, the Assembly notes:

3. that all the resolutions adopted by the Interim Assembly of the Provisional International Civil Aviation Organization (PICAO) are no longer in force.
