

Procedure to obtain LanChile's Symposium Rates

LanChile's administrative procedures preclude the possibility of assigning a special tariff code for symposium delegates. Therefore, delegates who may wish to take advantage of LanChile's preferential symposium rates are requested to contact LanChile's international offices included in the attached listing, and present (or fax) a copy of the Symposium registration form to obtain discounted tickets.

Preferential rates include 50 per cent discount over a full economy tariff, and are also applicable to companions travelling on the same flight. Preferential rates will be granted between 2 April 1999 and 25 April 1999. LanChile offices throughout the world have been advised of the symposium and will endeavour their best to alleviate the ticketing formalities. Please note, however, that producing the registration form is an absolute pre-requisite to obtain the preferential rate.

In order to assist international delegates willing to take advantage of the symposium to visit locations within Chile, LanChile will set up an information desk at the Centro de Convenciones Diego Portales, and will offer special rates for symposium delegates.
