

ICAO GLOBAL SYMPOSIUM ON AIR TRANSPORT LIBERALIZATION

Delegate Information

THEMES . . .

Sharing the Experience of Liberalization

Analysing Emerging Trends and Issues

Ensuring Safety in a Changing Environment

Building the Future through Cooperation

PURPOSE

To provide a global forum for States to share liberalization experiences, exchange information and views on trends and issues; and to learn about different policy options and approaches to liberalization

THE PROGRAMME

The programme will cover current, topical and practical issues in the liberalization of international air transport regulation, to be addressed by prominent speakers and panelists from a cross-section of States and interested parties with ample time reserved for open discussion by delegates.

Arabic
Chinese
English

French
Russian
Spanish

WHO SHOULD ATTEND?

Government policy makers; air service agreement negotiators and aviation regulators; aviation industry executives dealing with government policies and air services negotiations; international organizations and other parties interested in air transport regulatory policy (such as financiers, consultants, academics).

THE BENEFITS

- ✎ Share the successes and lessons in liberalization
- ✎ Learn about expert views on current trends and issues
- ✎ Understand better various aspects of liberalization
- ✎ Gain valuable insight to the pros and cons of different regulatory approaches
- ✎ Help achieve a more coherent and balanced policy for the benefit of all
- ✎ Excellent networking opportunities

12th World Route Development Forum

17-19 September 2006

Routes is comprised of pre-arranged, formal, one to one meetings between airlines and airports, coupled with a dedicated themed Networking Village which includes exhibition stands of all types and the facility for all delegates to meet effectively and efficiently in a relaxed and hospitable environment

