

Biography Information

Speaker's Name:

Mr. Guilherme Walder Mora Ramalho

Affiliation/Company:

Civil Aviation Secretariat of the Presidency, Brazil

Title/Position:

Executive Secretary

Brief Biography of Speaker:

Mr. Ramalho has a law degree from the University of São Paulo. He holds a graduate degree in the School of Government Administration of the Getúlio Vargas Foundation of São Paulo, School of Government, University of São Paulo (USP).

Public Service Career Specialist in Public Policy and Government Management of the Ministry of Planning, Budget and Management. He was the Advisor of the subchief of Coordination and Monitoring, Civil House of the Presidency, which accompanied the infrastructure investments in the Logistics Acceleration Program (PAC) and Director of the Department of infrastructure for the World Cup 2014 in the Secretariat of the Growth Acceleration Program (PAC), which was responsible for investments in infrastructure for the World Cup and member of group Executive Cup 2014.

He is currently the Executive Secretary of the Secretariat of Civil Aviation of the Presidency (SAC-PR), with the function of exercising greater coordination of government actions for the development of the civil aviation sector. In addition, he is Chairman of the Board of Directors of the Brazilian Airport Infrastructure Company (Infraero) and Coordinator of the National Commission of Airport Authorities (CONAERO), collegiate body whose function is to promote coordination of the duties of all agencies and entities public and private operating at Brazilian airports.