Global Aviation Cooperation Symposium

ICAO HQ, Montréal, 30 Spet-3 de Oct 2014

High Growth in Air Traffic: Opportunities and Challenges

Franklin Hoyer

ICAO Regional Director South America

Luis Manuel Aguirre

Head of Civil Aviation of Paraguay

Economist
MSc Management
Strategic Planning
Negotiations (Harvard)

Roy D. Barnett

Manager/Senior Technical Coordinator
Pacific Aviation Safety Office (PASO)
Criminology, (Tampa University)
B.A. in Asian Studies, Maryland College University
M.A. Degree in Psychological Counseling, M.A.
Degree in International Business, Webster University

Mrs. Ruby Sayyed

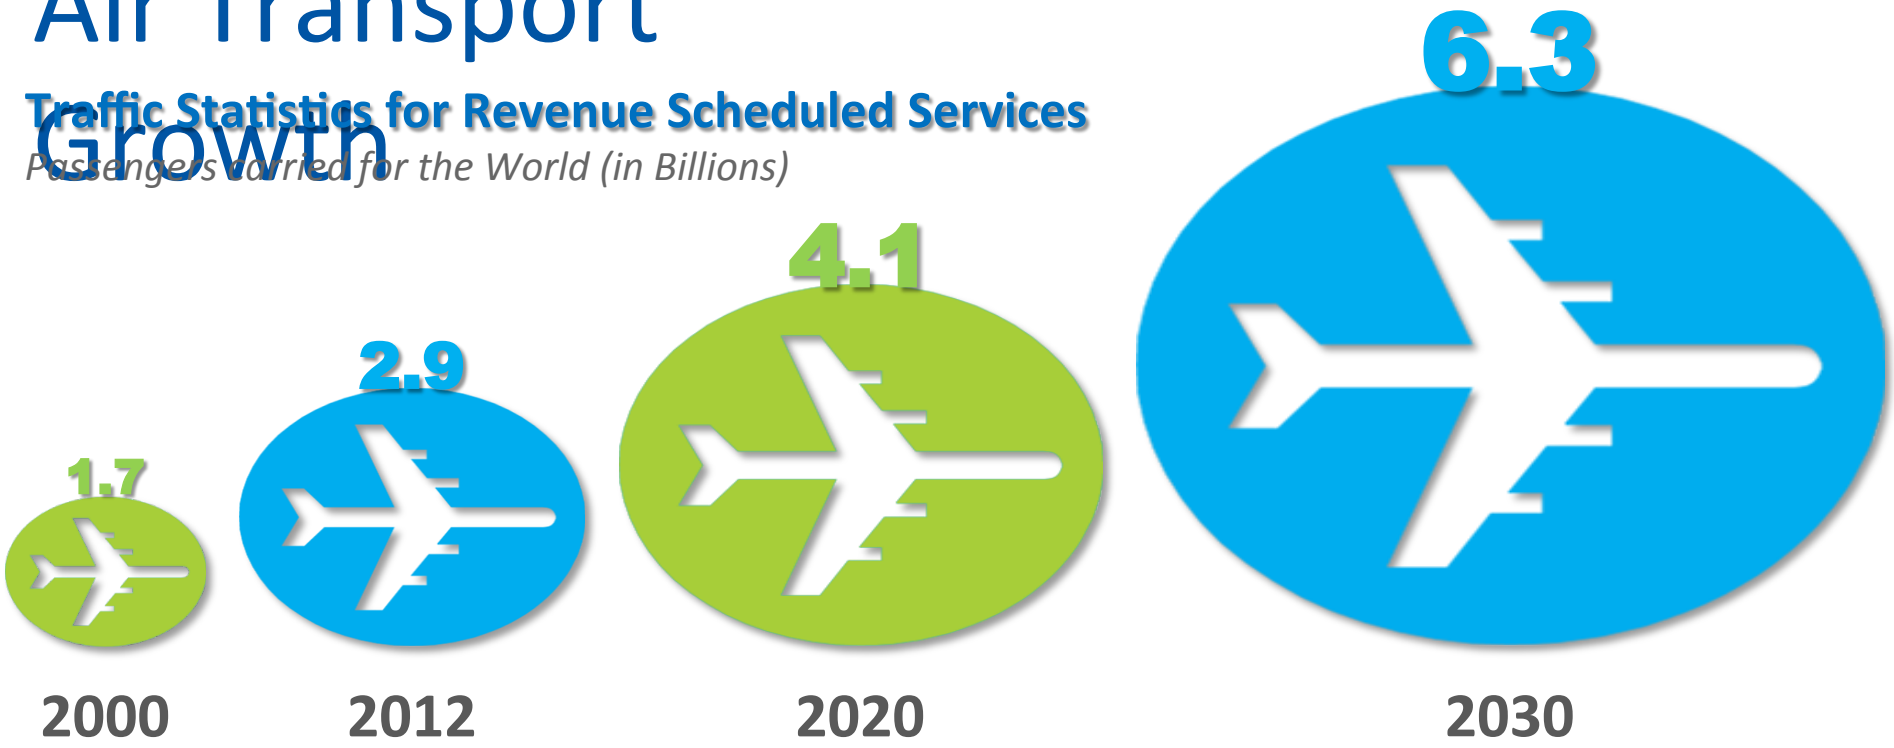
IATA - Montreal
Acting Director, ATM Infrastructure

Over 11 years' experience in the aviation industry.
BSc degree in Electrical Engineering,
Royal Jordanian Airlines (line maintenance, safety, operations, management)
Joined IATA on 1 March 2010

Air Transport Growth

Traffic Statistics for Revenue Scheduled Services

Passengers carried for the World (in Billions)



Economic benefits of aviation

58.1 million

Jobs supported by aviation worldwide

$2.4 trillion

Global economic impact*

Source: Air Transport Action Group (ATAG), 2014

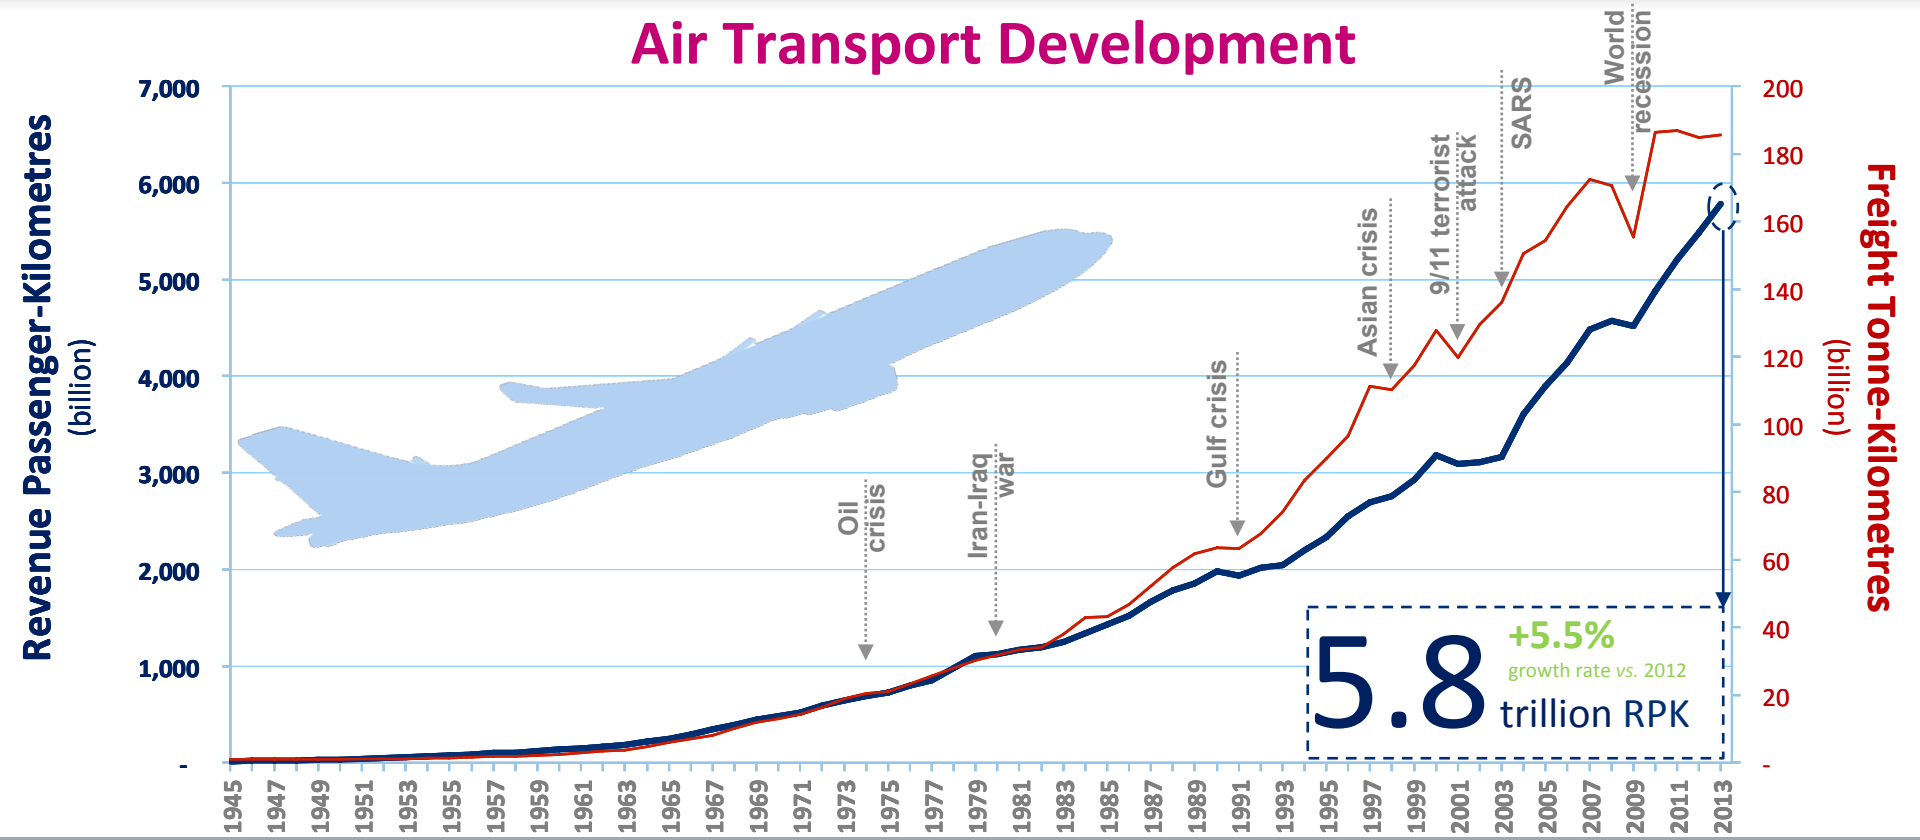
including direct, indirect, induced and tourism catalytic*

Air Transport Development



Source: ICAO Annual Reports of the Council

Scheduled commercial traffic
Total (international and domestic) services

World Air Transport in 2013

3.1 billion passengers carried — +4.5% vs. 2012

32 million commercial flights performed — +1.2% vs. 2012

5.8 trillion Revenue Passenger-Kilometres — +5.5% vs. 2012

186 billion Freight Tonne-Kilometres — +0.4% vs. 2012

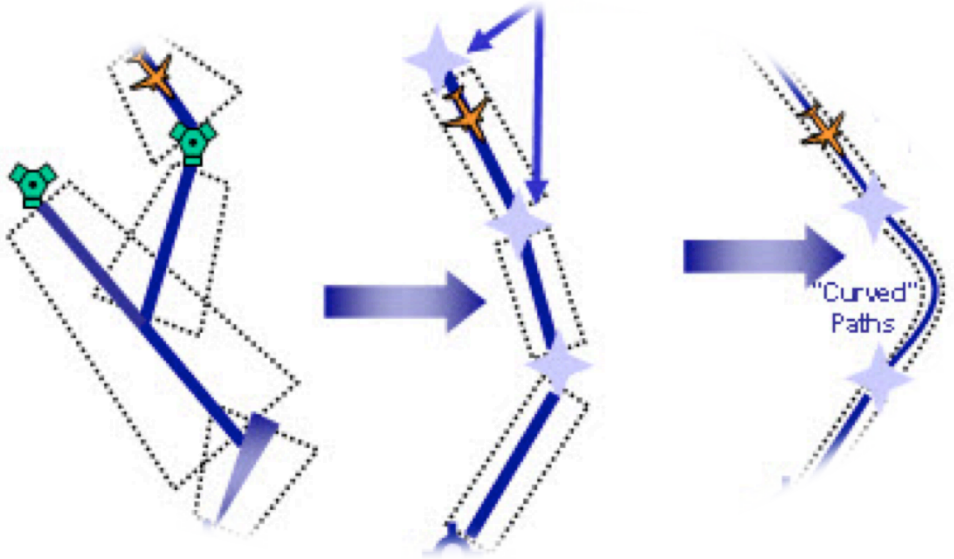
Source: ICAO Annual Report of the Council 2013

Scheduled commercial traffic
Total (international and domestic) services

What opportunities and challenges represent this growth?



Are we moving fast enough to increase airspace efficiency (PBN, ATFM)?

Are we taking into account the impact on safety?

Are we full advantage on the benefits of regional approach and regional technical cooperation projects?

ICAO

THANK YOU