

Lorenzo SEPÚLVEDA

Director, Safety Oversight & Engineering, DGAC - Chile

Mr. Sepúlveda is a Pilot and in Aeronautical Systems Engineer, he has carried out several courses, such as the General Staff in 1991-92; Management Course of Air Transport in Spain in 1981; Special Force Team and General Staff Course in Brazil in 1993, he is a Strategy and Intelligence Professor at the Air War Academy.

He is also owns a Master's Degree in Human Resources from the Gabriela Mistral University; Magister in Aeronautical Management and Post-graduate Professor at the Santo Tomás University.

In the of civil aviation field, he served for 5 years as a Deputy Planning Director of the General Directorate of Civil Aeronautics of Chile. He is a member of the Group of Experts on Political, Economic, Legal Matters and Air Transport of the Latin American Civil Aviation Commission (LACAC), Latin American Representative Safety oversight and Vice-President of the Pan American Safety Group of the International Civil Aviation Organization (ICAO).

He is currently Director of Safety Oversight and Engineering Department of the General Directorate of Civil Aeronautics of Chile.