

ZHANG Dezhi

VICE PRESIDENT CARGO, CHINA SOUTHERN AIRLINES

Mr. Zhang's current position is Vice President Cargo of China Southern Airlines. His past experience covered both passenger and cargo business, with a broad horizon in government affairs, international affairs, marketing, network planning, as well as air cargo.

Mr. Zhang has been dedicated to international affairs and global alliance for years, with rich experience regarding cooperation with SkyTeam members, both for passenger and cargo sides.

Based on more than twenty years of civil aviation experience, he served as the pioneer of international post projects in China Southern Cargo, who led the mail cooperation with USPS, Royal Mail, Deutsche Post, AF-KLM, Sodexi, PostNL, La Poste and etc.

In 2011 Mr. Zhang was seated in Delta Airlines for 6 months during an Executive Exchange Program between Delta Airlines and China Southern Airlines. He also had half a year on-site training experience in Cathay Pacific Airways.

Mr. Zhang got his Master Degree from Queen Mary University of London with distinction.