

Janne TARVAINEN

MANAGING DIRECTOR, FINNAIR CARGO LTD.

As Managing Director, Janne Tarvainen is responsible for Finnair Cargo specialized especially in air cargo traffic between Europe and Asia.

Janne joined Finnair in 1994. He is an aviation industry professional with wide competencies having more than 20 years of experience in various management and senior leadership roles in air cargo, airline operations and MRO (Maintenance, Repair and Overhaul). Janne is a proactive, development-oriented person with the extensive operational experience combined with a hands-on attitude and the ability of strategic thinking.

During his career he has been leading various development projects and performed major organizational restructuring to improve operational quality, cost competitiveness and growth of business. Leading people and leadership in general and managing the change have always been inspiring challenges and items of interest for him.

Janne holds a Master's Degree in Engineering.