

Edson Joseph

Edson Joseph received a BA in Business Management and Administration from the Newport University and an MSc in International Trade and Investment from the British University of Egypt. Further, he completed leadership studies with the Caribbean Leadership Project and the Caribbean Health Leadership and has completed a Civil Aviation Chief Executive Aviation/Airway Management and Operations Programme with the Singapore Aviation Academy. He is currently the Permanent Secretary within the Ministry of Public Utilities, Civil Aviation and Transportation and also serves as the Chairperson of the Air Transport Licensing Board. Mr. Joseph has been a career Public Servant for more than 29 year and have worked at the Prices and Consumer Affairs Division, the Co-operatives Department and the Ministry of Health, Social Transformation and Consumer Affairs.