2. ICAO AS A PRIVILEGED FORUM

2.1 African States have always considered ICAO as a privileged forum for discussion of critical issues concerning the orderly development of the international civil aviation industry. In this regard, African States team up and coordinate their efforts in order to participate actively in ICAO activities. These efforts have assisted ICAO to reach consensus and compromises in finding common solutions in the best interest of the entire international civil aviation community.

3. ACTION BY THE ASSEMBLY

3.1 In view of the confidence and the support that African States have always had from this august Assembly, the Assembly is invited to:

- a) note the information provided, and;
- b) elect the candidate States sponsored by Africa.
