

Calvin Phua

DEPUTY SECRETARY (INTERNATIONAL), MINISTRY OF TRANSPORT, SINGAPORE

Calvin is the Deputy Secretary (International) of the Ministry of Transport. Prior to this appointment, he was concurrently Senior Director of Sports at the Ministry of Culture, Community and Youth and Deputy Chief Executive of Sport Singapore, and Director of Land Policy at the Ministry of Law from 2009 to 2013.

While at the Ministry of Law, Calvin also handled intellectual property policy work, and was Singapore's Chief Negotiator for the Anti-Counterfeiting Trade Agreement. Calvin had also previously served in the Public Service Division, Ministry of Education, and the former Ministry of Information and The Arts. Calvin did his undergraduate studies in Physics at Imperial College, and holds a Master of Business Administration from Columbia Business School.