

Security is everyone's responsibility

YOU

Have a role to play in maintaining a positive security culture that helps keep you, your colleagues, and your passengers safe and secure.

For more information: www.icao.int/Security/Security-Culture

Why are we asking you to follow our security procedures?

- Our procedures are designed to keep all of us safe and secure.
- Aviation is an attractive and high profile target for those who mean us harm.
- The threats against aviation are real and we could be targeted at any time.
- Your awareness and vigilance help us counter and deter threats which can come in many forms.
- Your support helps us to prevent security breaches that might enable an attack.

For more information, please contact: