

Mrs. Anita Adjei-Nmashie was appointed as Representative of Ghana on the ICAO Council on 4 October 2022. With over 30 years of experience in the aviation industry, she has a keen interest in mentorship and has encouraged youth, particularly young women, to pursue careers in the areas of Science, Technology, Engineering, and Mathematics (STEM). She is also a member of the Women in Aviation International (WAI) organization as well as the Professional Women Controllers International (PWC).

In 2018, Mrs. Adjei-Nmashie became the Deputy Director, Safety Regulation with a scope of oversight responsibilities covering Aerodrome Safety and Standards, among others. In 1991, she successfully broke barriers by becoming the first woman Licensed Air Traffic Controller to work at the Ghana Civil Aviation Authority (GCAA) and in 2000, as the only woman to hold a position as an Aviation Safety Inspector.

With her leadership ability, Mrs. Adjei-Nmashie was successful in certifying Ghana's main international airport and thus enabling Ghana to become a pacesetter in aviation in the sub-region. Ghana subsequently became a Champion State for Aerodrome Certification and Surveillance in Africa in collaboration with ICAO's Regional offices (WACAF and ESAF).

She holds a Bachelor of Arts in Public Administration (BPA), Post graduate diploma in Occupational Health Safety and Environmental Management (DOSHEM), and an Executive master's in public administration (EMPA) from Ghana Institute of Management and Professional Administration (GIMPA). She has also completed numerous certificates in various fields of expertise in recognized colleges and institutions around the world.
