

Mr. ENKHTAIVAN Geleghjamtsyn has dedicated more than two decades to public service in the field of customs, steadily advancing through technical and leadership roles within the General Department of Customs of Mongolia.

He began his career in 2001 as a Customs State Inspector, later serving as a Senior Customs State Inspector, where he developed hands-on experience in customs control and enforcement. From 2015 to 2016, he was appointed as Head of the Risk Management Division at the General Department of Customs, where he led important efforts to improve Mongolia's risk-based customs procedures.

In 2016, he was appointed Director of the Ulaanbaatar City Customs Office. That same year, he returned to lead the Risk Management Division, a position he held until 2022. His leadership during this time was instrumental in developing data-driven inspection strategies and enhancing border risk mitigation capabilities.

Since 2022, Mr. Enkhtaivan has served as the Deputy Director General of the General Department of Customs. In this senior role, he oversees key aspects of customs policy implementation, institutional reform, and international cooperation. His extensive expertise in customs risk management and governance continues to support the modernization and transparency of Mongolia's customs operations.
