

Alexander Rayner is Executive Board member at the Pacific Asia Travel Association (PATA), a not-for-profit membership association with the vision of a meaningful Pacific Asia tourism economy.

Alex is also the Director Government and Destination Relations at Amadeus, a travel technology company, and has over 40 years of experience in the travel and tourism sector, including the United Nations Tourism, where he started was responsible for the eTourism PPP with Microsoft and numerous initiatives including Safety and Facilitation enhancement, and eVisa programmes of work.

Alex is also Special Advisor to Positium, an Estonian company specialising in Mobile Positioning Data (MPD), and an Expert Network member of the WEF, and Board Advisor to Vulcain that specialises in "Causal AI as a Service". A graduate from the University of Technology, Sydney (UTS), he also completed executive education in Disruptive Innovation and Artificial Intelligence at the Harvard Business School.