

Zhumazhan ZHOLDASBEKOV, Programme Officer, Immigration and Border Governance, IOM Kazakhstan, Country Office with Coordinating Functions for Central Asia.

With a background in Political Science and Law, Zhumazhan has been working at IOM since 2009. He holds a position of Head of Immigration and Border Governance Unit in IOM Kazakhstan, Country Office with Coordinating Functions for Central Asia, Astana, Kazakhstan. Before joining IOM, Zhumazhan also worked in different positions at the Ministry Foreign Affairs. Throughout his career, Zhumazhan focused on IOM's Counter Trafficking, Policy development and Immigration and Border Governance portfolios.

His current role at IOM includes provision of support in improving the policy, legislation, operational systems, human resources and administrative and technical structures required to respond more effectively to diverse migration and border management challenges. He is working with State agencies and International Organizations with Border Nexus on implementing joint projects in line with international standards and best practices. In his capacities of Member of State Interagency Commission on Facilitation he also facilitates coordinating the support available to the government through IOM's institutional cooperation with UNOCT, OSCE and other organizations.