Gary Leung is the Senior Manager - Security & Facilitation of Airports Council International (ACI) Asia-Pacific & Middle East based in Hong Kong.

In his role, Gary is ACI's point of contact for regional security and facilitation issues for over 610 airports in Asia-Pacific and the Middle East. He also serves as the secretary to the ACI Regional Aviation Security Committee, in which he is responsible in devising strategies to identify and address common security concerns of airports in the region.

Beside Asia-Pacific, Gary is also very actively engaged in the Middle East region, and he was the vice-chair of the ICAO Middle East Regional Aviation Security and Facilitation Implementation Team (RAFIT).

Prior to ACI, Gary had worked in different areas in the aviation industry where he gained a broad experience working with customers and a deep knowledge of the industry.
