Venue & Location

Wawel Royal Castle

Wawel 5, 31-001 Kraków, Poland

Senators' Hall

This imposing state room was referred to in primary sources as aula superior or stuba magna. Here were held the state openings of the sejm and sessions of the senate, the upper house of parliament. The room was also used for balls and theatrical spectacles during royal weddings – for the first time in 1518 during the wedding of Bona Sforza and Sigismund I.

Transport

Delegates travelling on commercial flights will arrive at John Paul II Kraków-Balice International Airport.
