Dear Madam/Sir,

1. I wish to inform you that an Air Law Treaty Workshop for States to which the ICAO European and North Atlantic (EUR/NAT) Office is accredited will be convened in the EUR/NAT Office of ICAO in Paris from 22 to 23 May 2024.
2. The Workshop is intended to inform and update civil aviation and other related officials on the important air law treaties adopted under the auspices of ICAO including those dealing with aviation safety and security and air carrier liability. In particular, the Workshop will highlight the benefits and obligations of States on becoming parties to international air law instruments adopted by ICAO.
3. Attendance is recommended for officials responsible for international aviation law, aviation security and safety and for related legislative, government advisory, diplomatic, judicial and law enforcement functions in their respective States. You are invited to share this information with the relevant departments, agencies, and organizations of your State for possible participation of their officials.
4. The provisional agenda for the Workshop is enclosed. The Workshop will be conducted in-person, in the English language, by officials from ICAO and other international experts.
5. I invite your Administration to nominate relevant participants to the Air Law Treaty Workshop before 4 May 2024 by email to icaoeurnat@icao.int and in copy to Florence Benjamin fbenjamin@icao.int.

Yours faithfully,

Nicolas Rallo
Regional Director
European and North Atlantic Office
