

Wildlife
Harassment
Program:
Tools and Practices

Summary

1. About Avisure
2. Best Practice in Action at Vancouver International Airport (YVR)
3. Wildlife Harassment, Tools and Practices
4. Training and Communications, Airport & Wildlife Management Personnel
5. Integrated Approach

About Avisure

Our vision:

“To be the world’s best practitioners, trainers, and advisors in bird and wildlife strike risk mitigation”.

Best Practice in Action: Vancouver International Airport (YVR)

Tools From Our Toolbox

Pyrotechnics

Propane Cannons

Stock Whips – an Aussie Introduction

Visual Deterrents

Trained Predators

Depredation

Vehicles: On and Off-Airport

Nest Management: On and Off-Airport

Training and Certifications

- Wildlife Management Personnel
- Airport Safety Personnel
- Airport Managers and Executives

Communications

For Best Practice in Active Wildlife Management

The Integrated Approach

- Leadership from the airport
- Understand wildlife risks and appropriate tools and practices for target species
- Communication among stakeholders
- Review and update

Questions

tdrapeau@avisure.com

 AVISURE
MITIGATING BIRD STRIKE RISK