Summary of yesterday's proceedings – Monday, 16 November 2026

The Conference was formally opened at 0900 hours in the Assembly Hall and was addressed by the President of the Council, Mr. Toshiyuki Onuma; the Secretary General of UN Tourism, Ms. Shaikha Al Nuwais; and the Minister of Transport Canada, Honourable Steven McKinnon.

Mr. Tiago Chagas Faierstein, Director-President of the National Civil Aviation Agency of Brazil was elected as the Chairperson of the Conference and Mr. Henri van Faassen, Deputy Director General and Director of Civil Aviation Strategy and Resilience, Directorate-General of Aviation and Maritime Affairs, Ministry of Infrastructure and Water Management of the Netherlands, as the Vice-Chairperson.

The Secretary General delivered a presentation on the overview of the Conference to set the scene for the event. This was subsequently followed by a high-level panel discussion on "The State of the Aviation Industry: Navigating Change and Assessing Readiness for 2050" which was moderated by the Secretary General. The panellists comprised the Secretary of State for Civil Aviation, Maritime and Ports of Angola, the Deputy Administrator of the Civil Aviation Administration of China, the Director General of the Directorate-General for Mobility and Transport of the European Commission, the Deputy Minister of Transport and Public Works of Uruguay, and the President of the Civil Aviation Authority of Oman.

Presentations were also delivered by five industry organizations, namely the Air Transport Action Group (ATAG), Airports Council International (ACI), the Civil Air Navigation Services Organisation (CANSO), the International Air Transport Association (IATA), and the International Coordinating Council of Aerospace Industries Associations (ICCAIA). These presentations provided industry perspectives on key developments affecting international air transport and on priorities for ensuring the sector's continued growth, resilience and sustainability.
