

ACCIDENT INVESTIGATION AND PREVENTION (AIG) DIVISIONAL MEETING (2008)

Montréal, 13 to 18 October 2008

Agenda Item 1: Annex 13

1.2: Chapter 5 of Annex 13

PARTICIPATION OF STATES IN INVESTIGATIONS

(Presented by the International Coordinating Council of Aerospace Industries Associations)

SUMMARY

This paper discusses the issue of extending provisions in Annex 13 to allow the State of Departure and the State of Arrival to have access to current information of the investigation.

Action by the meeting is in paragraph 3.

1. INTRODUCTION

1.1 The meeting is to consider the need to extend the provisions of Annex 13 to entitle the State of Departure and the State of Arrival to participate in investigations.

2. DISCUSSION

2.1 ICCAIA believes that participation by the State of departure or arrival should be left to the State conducting the investigation as they are in a unique position to determine what resources are needed to conduct the investigation.

3. ACTION PROPOSED

3.1 The meeting is invited to consider ICCAIA proposal to leave the State conducting the investigation to decide on the participation of the State of Departure and the State of Arrival.
