

Rusnee MUSTAPA

Rusnee Mustapa is currently a manager of Aviation Security and Facilitation Standards Department, the Civil Aviation Authority of Thailand (CAAT). Beginning her career in a government agency as a foreign relations officer and then move to aviation security and facilitation field. Rusnee initially focused on coordination and providing support to various departments. Her big break came in 2010 when Thailand underwent a Universal Security Oversight Audit Programme audit (USAP) by the International Civil Aviation Organization (ICAO) which security related facilitation is also included. With a career that spans both government and international sectors, she has consistently demonstrated that passion, determination, and the courage to take on new challenges can pave the way for remarkable opportunities.

Not only aviation security responsibilities, she also has taken on the role of the secretary for both national civil aviation security committee and national air transport facilitation committee, where coordination between agencies is deemed very crucial. Additionally, she is primarily responsible for coordinating civil aviation security and facilitation with both domestic and international agencies.

Recognizing her potential, Rusnee transitioned to a full-time role in AVSEC and FACILITATION, a field that would shape the rest of her career. Her dedication and expertise quickly earned her a leadership position as the Manager of the Aviation Security and Facilitation Standards Department (SFD) at The Civil Aviation Authority of Thailand (CAAT). In this role, she was responsible for overseeing and maintaining Thailand's aviation security standards and some facilitation aspect, ensuring that the aviation industry in Thailand upheld the highest security and facilitation requirements and standards.

Driven by a passion for professional development and global impact, Rusnee obtains certification as an ICAO Short-Term Expertise in AVSEC Instructor and AVSEC Auditor, a distinguished achievement that underscores her unwavering dedication to excellence in aviation security.
