

Piotr Samson

President of the Civil Aviation Authority of Poland

Senior Manager with twenty years of professional experience. Air transport and marketing expert. Graduate of Warsaw University of Technology, Faculty of Industrial Engineering. He completed an MBA at Cranfield University in the United Kingdom and studies at the Business Department at Galway University in Ireland.

Professionally associated with aviation since 1993. At that time he began his work in LOT Polish Airlines as a Marketing Specialist. In 2007 he re-teamed with LOT Polish Airlines where he was responsible for the company's marketing policy and customer service standards. He contributed to the establishment of two airlines in Poland, from 2010 to 2011 as the Marketing Director in ENTER AIR and in the period of 2012-2014 as the Marketing and Sales Director in BINGO AIRWAYS.

In November 2016 he was appointed for the position of President of the Polish CAA.

Member of the EASA Management Board and the Chairman of the Programming of Resources Advisory Body to the EASA MB. In 2017 he was President of the Permanent Commission of EUROCONTROL.