4. Opening session

The opening session will take place on 26 October 2026 at 09:00 in the auditorium of the Institute of Aeronautical Cartography (ICA).

5. Temperature

In October, temperatures range from approximately 20°C to 29°C, with an average temperature of around 24°C and relative humidity of about 76%. During this period, the weather is usually warm and humid, with the possibility of occasional rain and some sunny spells. From 26 to 30 October, typical spring conditions are expected, although the possibility of rain should be taken into account.

6. Currency exchange

The national currency is the Brazilian real (BRL). The current exchange rate is approximately R$ 5.20 to US$ 1.00. It is preferable to exchange currency at authorized exchange offices and banks. Currency exchange is also available at the airport.

7. Credit cards

The international credit cards commonly accepted at hotels, shops and restaurants are Visa, Mastercard, American Express (AMEX) and Diners Club. Visa and Mastercard are widely accepted in Brazil, while American Express and Diners Club may be accepted at a smaller number of establishments.

8. Accommodation

The following hotels are suggested:

Hotel	Address	Single/double room US$
Ibis Rio de Janeiro Santos Dumont	Rua Marechal Camara, 280 – Centro, Rio de Janeiro – RJ	86,00
Ibis Copacabana Posto 5	Rua Xavier da Silveira 82, Copacabana, Rio de Janeiro – RJ	100,00

9. Transportation to the event venue

Airlines flying to Rio de Janeiro arrive at Tom Jobim International Airport, also known as Galeão. Located in the Ilha do Governador area, in the North Zone, the airport is approximately 15.7 km from the venue where the meeting will be held.

For transportation from the airport to the hotel, there is an UBER ZONE at the airport where passengers can wait for the cars they have requested. The fare is approximately 55 reais.

For special/executive taxis (with fixed fares at the airport), the cost is approximately R$ 155.

DECEA will assist participants with transportation along the coast of Rio de Janeiro, from Copacabana to the event venue.

10. Hospitals

Public healthcare services in Brazil are free of charge for foreign tourists. Therefore, if you have an accident, need medical attention or experience any health problem, simply call the Mobile Emergency Medical Service (SAMU) at the toll-free number listed below.

SAMU (Mobile Emergency Medical Service): 192
Fire Department: 193
Police: 190

Private medical services in Rio de Janeiro are of high quality, and most international prescription medications are available at pharmacies; however, most require a prescription from a local physician. Delegates are advised to bring their personal medications and to take out medical insurance for duration. of their trip.

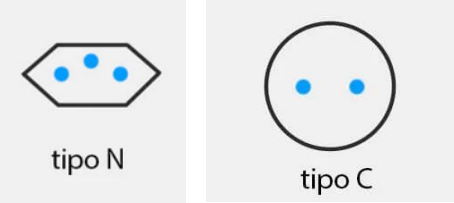

In addition, all countries that maintain diplomatic relations with Brazil have embassies in Rio de Janeiro, which can provide further assistance to their citizens. If it is necessary to go to a hospital covered by travel insurance, the recommended private hospital is Copa Star Hospital, located at Rua Figueiredo Magalhães, 700 – Copacabana – Rio de Janeiro. 11. Business hours

Shops in Rio de Janeiro are generally open Monday to Friday from approximately 09:00 to 19:00 and on Saturdays from 09:00 to 13:00, although hours may vary by establishment and area. Shopping malls and large stores are generally open Monday to Saturday from 10:00 to 22:00, and on Sundays and public holidays with reduced hours, usually from 13:00 to 21:00. Banks are generally open to the public Monday to Friday from 10:00 to 16:00.

12. Electricity

127 V / 60 Hz. Plugs are mainly Type N, with three round pins, although sockets compatible with Type C two-pin plugs may also be found. It is recommended that you bring a universal adapter for laptops, mobile phones and other devices, checking in advance that they are compatible with 127 V or indicate an input range of 100–240 V.

13. Airport tax

The departure tax for international flights is US$ 26.

14. Visas and vaccinations

Please check with the respective embassies and Brazilian missions in your country.

15. Other information

The recommended tip in restaurants is 10% of the amount spent. The tip is generally suggested at the end of the bill and is voluntary. Sales and services are subject to Value Added Tax (VAT), which is currently 19% and is generally included in the price payable. Tips are not customary for taxi or other transport drivers and are left to the passengers' discretion.

16. Safety and security information

The usual safety precautions for any city are recommended, such as carrying only the money you need, avoiding unnecessary display of valuable jewellery and avoiding talking on a mobile phone in the street. Ask your hotel to arrange radio-taxi or Uber services for transportation.

In an emergency, the following telephone numbers may be contacted:

Fire Department: 193
Police: 190
