

Mr Proudfoot assumed his current position as Chargé d’Affaires of the Delegation of Canada to the International Civil Aviation Organization (ICAO) on 30 January 2023.

Since joining the Canadian Foreign Service in 1987, Mr Proudfoot held assignments in Nairobi, Delhi, London and at Headquarters in Ottawa as the Director of the Afghanistan and Sudan Task Forces.

As a career diplomat, he has served as a Canadian Ambassador and a Head of Mission in Ramallah, Juba and Bamako. From 2002 to 2006, he was appointed as an Alternate Permanent Representative to the International Organisations in Vienna (IAEA, CTBTO, UNODC), and represented Canada in the Conference on Disarmament in Geneva, the NPT Review Conferences and the First Committee of the General Assembly.

Mr Proudfoot has degrees in Philosophy from the University of Toronto and in Renaissance History from McGill University.