

Colonel Sidi Sadio Diallo was appointed Representative of Mali to the ICAO Council in October 2025.

Colonel Diallo is a senior officer in the Air Force, with extensive experience and an impressive professional background. His expertise spans several key areas of aviation and military management.

Over the course of his career, Colonel Diallo has held major positions of responsibility, demonstrating his leadership abilities and effective team management. He has served as Deputy Commander of an air base, Head of the Bamako Secondary Rescue Centre, Search and Rescue (SAR) Focal Point, Director of Air Schools and Training Centres, Assistant Chief of Staff for Operations and Commander of an air region.

He holds a diploma from the Staff College and the War College, as well as a Master of Sciences degree in National Resource Strategy from the National Defense University (NDU) of the United States of America.

Beyond his professional skills, Colonel Diallo is a man of dedication, recognized for his commitment to his responsibilities and his sense of duty. His many awards, including the Medal of Military Merit and the Silver Star of National Merit, are testament to his dedication and excellence in the service of his country. As a family man, married and the father of four children, he successfully balances his professional life and his private life.