Ambassador Song Bum Shin was appointed Representative of the Republic of Korea on the ICAO Council on 25 May 2026 and has served as Consul General in Montreal since May 2026.

Since joining the Ministry of Foreign Affairs and Trade (MOFAT) in 1995, Ambassador Shin held various diplomatic posts including assignments at the Embassies of the Republic of Korea in the United States of America, Denmark, Côte d'Ivoire, Iraq and Gabon, as well as at the Korean Permanent Delegation to the Organization for Economic Cooperation and Development (OECD) in Paris. He most recently served as Ambassador Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary to Gabon (2023).

Ambassador Shin holds a B.A. in Economics from Hankuk University of Foreign Studies as well as an M.A. in Commercial Diplomacy from the Monterey Institute of International Studies.