

ICAO Action

ICAO routinely reviews and updates, when deemed appropriate, the lost communications procedures. However, ICAO to undertake another such review following this request. As part of the review, consideration to be given to the usefulness of a State letter requesting those States which have not done so, to align their procedures with those contained in ICAO documents or at a minimum, ensure their flight crews and air traffic control staff are sufficiently trained on the procedures for international applications.