

Action

The report and the recommendation were reviewed by the Cargo Safety Section (CSS). The panel noted that the Civil Aviation Administration of China (CAAC) identified that the shipper did not comply with the Technical Instructions. Additionally, the panel considered it worthy to investigate the current requirements in the Technical Instructions for transporting disinfection products. Therefore, the subject will be added to the agenda for the next Dangerous Goods Panel (DGP) meeting scheduled for Fall 2024.