

ICAO Action

b)

ICAO will review its existing framework for gathering information on the near-miss accidents and serious incidents and take relevant action, based on that review, to enhance it in relation to events caused by targeting a civil aircraft. The comprehensive review of this framework is envisaged to be completed in December 2021.