

Safety Recommendation

EASA/JAA and ICAO implement a means to record international safety audits of the States' Civil Aviation Authorities, which ensures that the findings can be tracked in depth, action plans are developed and implemented in shortest possible time; and impose the necessary pressure when they become aware that international obligations and standards are not being met by the Authorities.