

Safety Recommendation

The International Civil Aviation Organization should expedite the introduction of a standard for flight deck image recording, and should encourage member States to provide legal protection, similar to that for cockpit voice recordings, for such image recordings.