

Safety Recommendation (08/13)

It is recommended that the International Civil Aviation Organization establish as an essential requirement for skydiving operations that the aircraft utilized for this activity have onboard a flight data recorder capable of logging at least the basic parameters of the aircraft's operation.