

Safety Recommendation (RL 2011:16e R4)

ICAO should within the international flight safety community, work to ensure that in the future, the issuing of requirements, specifications and definition of areas of use, aircraft de- and anti-icing fluids are made the responsibility of airworthiness authorities.