

Safety Recommendation

It is recommended to initiate the process to develop, within Annex 14, Volume I “Aerodrome Design and Operations”, a standard for runway edge lights that would allow pilots to identify them, specifically, without reference to other lights or other airfield features.