

Safety Recommendation (2012-131)

It is recommended that the International Civil Aviation Organization introduce a standard or recommended practice for fixed wing aeroplanes to record the flight management system takeoff performance data entries on the flight data recorder during the takeoff phase. The data should be retained in the operator's flight data analysis programme.