

Safety Recommendation

REC 31/2016

It is recommended that the International Civil Aviation Organization (ICAO) develop a common procedure or phraseology for the application of contingency measures in the event that a stop bar cannot be turned off such that crews can clearly identify when said contingency measures are in place.