

Safety Recommendation

Safety recommendation 7.2.3 b)

Develop a framework necessary for gathering information on the near-miss accidents and events caused by targeting a civil aircraft, including the provision of definitions and examples, the method of information collection, reporting and sharing. Such database should allow for the revision of relevant standards and guidelines, as appropriate, based on information submitted by States at national, regional and international levels.