

Safety Recommendation

Safety recommendation 7.2.3 g)

Study the effects of stable and transient conditions in risk assessment, determine the threat level specifications in transient conditions and update the provisions and associated guidance material addressing civil aircraft operating over or near conflict zones accordingly.