

Safety Recommendation

It is recommended that the International Civil Aviation Organization examine the safety benefits of introducing a Standard for real time tracking of commercial air transport aircraft.