Strategic Objective	This working paper is related to Strategic Objective A.

1. Introduction

1.1 Since the creation of the Regional Aviation Safety Group – Pan America numerous activities have been programmed and accomplished.

1.2 The diversity and dynamic activities of the Group, as well as the size of the Pan American Region, requires a careful approach to accomplish the proposed goals in a timely and efficient manner. RASG-PA members are constrained by many issues regarding time, personnel and financial issues that require the use of all available resources to accomplish RASG-PA goals and objectives.

2. Activities

2.1 The activities of the Group since the RASG-PA/02 Meeting in November 2009 have been organized and coordinated by the RASG-PA Secretariat with the support and guidance of the Executive Steering Committee (ESC) and included the following:

- a) Executive Steering Committee (ESC)
 - i) Three Meetings: Colombia, November 2009; Brazil, April 2010 and United States, August 2010;
 - ii) Monthly Teleconferences;

- b) First Pan American Aviation Safety Summit: Brazil, April 2010;
- c) Regional Aviation Safety Team – Pan America (RAST-PA)
 - i) Three Meetings: Mexico, February 2010; United States, April 2010 and Dominican Republic, October 2010;
 - ii) Virtual meetings: weekly, beginning in June 2010;
- d) Flight Safety Training Team (FSTT)
 - i) One Meeting: Mexico, March 2010;
- e) Annual Safety Report Team (ASRT)
 - i) Two Meetings: Lima Peru, July and September 2010;
- f) RASG-PA Projects
 - i) Two Conferences: Mexico, ALTA Aviation Law Americas, September 2010 and Brazil, ICASS 2010, October 2010; and
- g) Participation in the Eighth Meeting of the focal points of the Regional Cooperation System for Safety Oversight (SRVSOP).

2.2 The next RASG-PA activity is the RASG-PA ESC/07 Meeting on 29 October 2010 in Dominican Republic.

3. Conclusion

3.1 The RASG-PA work program and objectives result in a combination of activities depending on the mandate of the Group.

3.2 The RASG-PA Secretariat, to the extent possible, is managing the funds and in-kind donations accordingly, in close coordination with the ESC, to accomplish the activities and objectives of RASG-PA for 2011 (see Appendix).

4. Action by the Meeting

4.1 The Meeting is invited to:

- a) propose RASG-PA activities for 2011;
- b) sponsor RASG-PA activities for 2011; and
- c) approve the draft proposed RASG-PA plan of activities for 2011.
