ICAO REGIONAL COURSE DEVELOPERS AND INSTRUCTORS STANDARDIZATION (CDI/STD) MEETINGS

Nairobi, Kenya, 17 to 19 October 2016
Bogotá, Colombia, 12 to 14 December 2016

1. ICAO will convene two Course Developers and Instructors Standardization (CDI/STD) Meetings to be held in Nairobi, Kenya, from 17 to 19 October 2016, and in Bogotá, Colombia, from 12 to 14 December 2016. These meetings will be graciously hosted by the East African School of Aviation, and by the Centro de Estudios de Ciencias Aeronáuticas, respectively.
2. The objective of the CDI/STD Meetings is to provide training professionals a unique opportunity to address challenges, identify solutions, and exchange best practices for the improvement of training deliverables. Networking opportunities during both events will encourage greater collaboration in training and the formation of new training partnerships. Overall, the meetings will enable training professionals from diverse organizations to engage with each other to determine the best way forward in their capacity-building endeavours.
3. Consisting of a series of dynamic sessions, participants will focus on training tactics to enhance effectiveness of training methodologies, and sustainable strategies for standardizing and extending best training practices throughout their organizations and beyond. Experts will offer their solutions to training challenges, and the meetings will close with recommended best practices.
4. Registration for these events is complimentary. In addition to TRAINAIR PLUS Programme (TPP) Members, representatives of training departments of civil aviation authorities, and aviation training organizations are encouraged to participate.
5. Further details, including programme, event dates, and registration will be updated regularly at www.icao.int/training. Regional Offices will issue invitation letters for their accredited Member States.
