Dear Sir/Madam,

We are pleased to invite you to participate in the webinar Studies on the Regulatory Impact of Air Services Agreements for the Promotion of the Liberalization of the Air Transport Market in Latin America and the Caribbean, which will be held virtually on 13 September 2022.

This webinar is an initiative of ICAO and the Inter-American Development Bank (IADB), which aims to present the benefits of the aforementioned studies and to promote the liberalization of the air transport market in Latin America and the Caribbean, raising awareness among the authorities of civil aviation, economic regulators and industry stakeholders, on the key role of wide market access.
